Police Warn Against Reckless Teamsters;
MUST GUARD DYNAMITE

Inexperienced Drivers Not to Handle Explosives, Say State Officials.

Orders have been issued by the State Police, through Deputy Chief George C. Neal, that no more dynamite shall be carried through the streets of Boston by inexperienced teamsters. If men familiar with the safe way to load and unload the explosive cannot be secured, then the dynamite must not be taken through the streets.

Deputy Neal had a long conference with Edward G. Tuttlein of the firm of E. G. Tuttlein & Co., at whose stable in East Boston there was found enough explosive to have wiped the place off the map, and plainly explained to him under what conditions dynamite could be carted by him.

Tuttlein's firm has a practical monopoly of Police Will Keep Guard.

No further action will be taken by the State Police, but a close watch will be kept on the manner in which any explosive is taken through the public thoroughfares.

At the conclusion of his interview with Tutein, Deputy Chief said:

"After what Mr. Tutein has said to me I see that it was the result of an unfortunate combination of circumstances brought on by the strike. Of course, that does not mitigate the offence, however, for it was done by one of his men.

"I am not sure, however, known of the fact, and would have looked into the matter if I had. Tutein's men went out on strike with the other strikers, and he was obliged to hire a man to drive his car. I am sure he hired a man who was not a member of the union."

nothing of the stringent rules covering the transportation of explosives.

"Monday afternoon five cases of dynamite were taken from the island down the harbor where the powder company stores its powder, consigned to Chester via Boston & Albany. When it reached the station the freight sheds were closed, and the teamster, ignorant of the methods pursued in such cases, brought the dynamite over to the stables in East Boston and left it there.

Must Have Responsible Drivers.

"I have directed him to move no explosives under the charge of new men, and have told him that unless he can get men who know the rules and regulations and are accustomed to handling the powder he cannot transport it through the streets of Boston."

Orders have been given by the owners of the Boston Wharf Company to have the steamship Zealandia moved from the moorings it occupied under suffrage last night, to some other berth. When it was discovered for what purpose the boat was to be used the directors of the wharf company said the ship should not remain.

Other strike-breakers were compelled to remain outside. Only after a promise was made to get the ship away to-day was the craft allowed to remain there. The Zealandia will be tied up at Joy line wharf.

More Breakers Arrive.

There were over two hundred men on the boat last night. Every bit of their belongings was taken from the quarters at "Fort Brindley" on Albany street.

At various times during the night 1500 men arrived from New York, additional strike-breakers, many of whom were taken out to-day. They went direct from the South Station to the boat, led by a sergeant of the Broadway station police.

More than half they have taken out since the strike began were started by the Master Teamsters from their stables to-day. Following are the numbers: Fifield, Richardson & Co., fourteen teams and thirty men; J. S. Hillard & Son, sixteen teams and thirty-two men; Flanders & Co., eighteen teams and forty men; Johnson & Co., fourteen teams and twenty-six men; Boston Forwarding and Transfer Co., twelve teams and thirty-one men.

BRAYTON DETHRONED; R. I. SENATE FIASCO

BOSS GOES DOWN IN HUMILIATING DEFEAT.
STATE NOW HAS ONLY ONE SENATOR.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 24.—Hitter feeling certain in the Republican ranks over the Senatorial place makes the downfall of "Boss" Bryson as the least of his worries. He has already secured the leaders' pledge to support him. It means that this State will only have one United States Senator until next January.

It is not only in the Senate that he has supreme authority to whip the party into line to elect Colonel Samuel Pomeroy, Col. Pomeroy's nomination has been contracted for from the Sheriff's office, has lost his grip on the machine. Finally, he has wrecked the whole organization for next all through, and Democrats are rejoicing over the faithfulness and quality shown by the party.

Wetmore Finished Third.

Colonel Colt was second with thirty-nine votes, and George Pease Wetmore was third with thirty-five. "Boss" Bryson's followers easily charged that there was a conspiracy between the two candidates to keep him out of the race as full.

At a more late day, he been outperformed by "Boss" Bryson in his bid for the nomination of the Implication party in Rhode Island.

When the last ballot was cast, only one vote was cast for the Implication party, was represented by the sitting of a delegate.

Farm Hand Accused of Death of Missing Delaware Child Breaks Down and Weeps. "Would Not Have Harmed a Hair of His Head," Man Cries.

DOVER, Del., April 24.—Under arrest charged with murdering young Horace Marvin, who disappeared from his father's home on March 4, Frank Butler was brought here to-day. Butler was arrested on board the steamer John P. Wilson, on which he was employed as second mate. He is the farmhand who, it is said, was the last man who saw the Marvin boy alive.

"If I ever carried off that kid in a bag or in any other way, I did not know it. Before God I am innocent. I wouldn't have harmed a hair on his head for the world."

With tears streaming down his face, Butler made the above statement to-day when he was arrested by detectives.

The arrest was made after the vessel had got well within the Delaware territory and had left Bower's Beach, and was proceeding up Delaware sound for several days. With the warrant in his possession he took passage late last night when she sailed for Delaware waters. Butler had been warned by a friend that he would be arrested as soon as the boat steamed beyond the Pennsylvania line, but he said he did not care and would make no effort to escape.

When the steamer arrived at Jones's Creek on the last stage of her all night trip.

Butler was given a brief hearing and Detective Lore questioned the prisoner for three hours, but refused to say the result of his work.

BABY DEAD, NEW STORY.
The new theory of the detectives working on the case is that the Marvin boy is dead and buried upon a neighbor's farm.

The deckhand was one of the employees on the Marvin place the day young Horace disappeared.

With others, he was engaged in the transfer of the household goods of Charles Woodhall, a nearby resident of the country.

GIANTS MADE IT FOUR STRAIGHT IN BOSTON

May better results attend the Yankees on their invasion of Pate's Diamond this week at Brooklyn today.

After losing four straight to the Giants the Doves will be in no more mood to take any more reverses.

After such a disastrous outcome of the series with the "champions" the Doves ought to strive their best with the Phillies.

They found them to their liking at the opening of the season and should be able to continue to continue the Dodgers that they are outwitted.

Landman with his last season of rest should go in the last game and show them over as usual as past, and the men behind him will do the rest.

Little and the Young had two chances against the Giants, and yesterday evening fared better than on the first one.

He still was a bit untidy, and the Giants never fell to take advantage of any mistakes in a pitcher.

The fan did not have a chance to warm up till near the close, and then a few minutes started the most exciting game, and as a result the team did not get out until late.

FOUR OF THE GAME.

Near straight to the Giants! And both teams looking at the same old ball.

Baumgartner led with a double, two singles and a triple, all on the same of the ball.

Charles Gassal with a bunch of errors watched the first.

He had quite a swing at his wide curves, but when he had to put them over he looked better.

Brain was not looking when he put them over.
